SUDDEN DEATH.—On Monday after noon Price Thorp, of Stayton, complained of severe pains in the abdominal region, but neither he nor his friends thought it anything very serious. An hour later, however, he took to vomiting, and in a short time was dead. His trouble is thought to have been the bursting of a blood vessel, as he had been in usual good health. Deceased was a farmer living with his mother, and was aged about 45 years.
He was buried on Tuesday.

WANT THEIR PAY.—A call is out for a meeting of creditors of the Oregon Pacific railroad company, including unpaid employees and any one who has a claim against the road, to be held at Mill City Saturday, Sept. 30th. It is signed by R. G. Pierce, S. C. Dike and B. F. Eddleman, who were appointed a committee for that purpose at a meeting held in Gates last Sunday.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.—The Salem Local Union of C. E. will hold its annual business meeting this evening at 7 o'clock in the Congregational church.
Officers for the ensuing year will be elected, and other matters of business transacted. Each member should be in attendance. By order of the secretary.

A LONG RIDE.—Mr. and Mrs. A. D.
Davidson went down to Portland on the wheel. He came back on the local today, but Mrs. Davidson will return on her bike. This is the longest ride any of Salem's lady bicyclists have yet made, and Mrs. Davidson should wear the medal.

FREIGHT RATES.—Eugene business men will attend the meeting of railroad commissioners in this city next Monday to look after their interests in the matter of freight rates. It will probably be too much trouble for the business men of Salem to go up to the state house.

A TRIAL TROT.—One of the wide awake alderman who is interested in the city having an efficient fire department turned in an alarm last evening.
The boys turned out and made the regulation "trot" to the corner of Commercial and State streets in one minute.

AT HOME AGAIN.—Miss May Wilkins, who has been unavoidably absent from her dressmaking rooms, is now back and ready to receive her patrons.
She still has the exclusive agency of the New York Tailoring system of cutting and fitting.

A LITTLE OFF.—That is a complaint sometimes made by people who try poor eastern cheese, but all who eat the famous little Neuteca brand sold by Clark & Epley never feel that way.

SHOES, SHOES.—Remember Krause Bro. are still leading in foot wear and having an immense trade, because they carry the largest stock on sell at the lowest prices.

HIGHBINDER.—They move like the wind, but if you want an errand done quickly call on Lockwood's mounted messenger. Turn the blue box.

CUT IN TWO.—The prices on fall hats at Mrs. S. C. Reed's. The best $1.50 hats ever offered in Salem. Ladies don't fail to see them.

SOCIAL AND SUPPER.—At Channing hall, Friday evening, Sept. 27th. Supper from 5 to 8; social and amusements from 8 to 11.

ARRIVED.—A full new line of muslin underwear, which will be sold at close figures at Mrs. S. C. Reed's.

ONLY a dollar and a half.—One of those superb fall hats—worth double the money, at Mrs. S. C. Reed's.

FOR RENT.—Eight-room cottage in East Salem. Inquire of Mrs. D. L.
Foster's millinery store.

FUNDING ORDINANCE KILLED

The City Council Holds a Special Session and Cleans Up a Lot of Work.

The city council met in adjourned session last evening, with the mayor and entire council present.

Numerous claims were presented and referred.

Chairman Hunt, of the ways and means committee, returned the ordinance without recommendation ordering the city's indebtedness fund by issuing $50,000 5 per cent. bonds, as contemplated by the new city charter when brought to a vote the council stood a tie, and was lost by the mayor voting in the negative.

Klein moved to drop the High street improvement matter, in view of the remonstrances filed, but it was deferred until the next meeting. On motion of Hunt said remonstrance was ordered placed on record.

Better light was ordered placed in Marion square to prevent bad boys from creating a disturbance there nights.
The North Salem engine house was also ordered made tramp proof.

Chairman Cross reported favorably upon the Alert Hook & Ladder company's proposal. Adopted. The motion to rescind the order confining city fire teams to a trot was lost.

A remonstrance against the proposed church street improvement was presented and ordered placed on record, signed as follows:

Mrs. H. S. Belle, P. B. Leabo, Fannie B. Richardson, Kate M. Keller, son, David Simmons, F. A. Moore, A.

Sloper, C. E. Sloper, German M. E.
Church (by trustees).

D. F. Wagner asked to be relieved from street assessment on property that is not his. Referred.

Councilman Lafore introduced an ordinance with the following provisions:

Section 1.—All taxes, licenses, assessments for street purposes where warrants in payment, therefore have been drawn on the general fund, and all other moneys due to the city of Salem, excepting fines, forfeitures, penalties and costs imposed by and collected under any judgment of the recorder's court or of any other court, shall be paid in gold coin of the United States of America or in city warrants of the city of Salem, drawn on the general fund of the city of Salem and endorsed 'not paid for want of funds' providing that sums not exceeding $10 may be paid in silver coin of the United States of America.

Section 2.—Assessments for street improvements or for the construction of sewers or other improvements where the sum is payable into a special fund shall be paid in gold coin of the United States of America or in warrants of the city of Salem, drawn on such special fund, provided, however, that sums not exceeding $10 may be paid in silver coin of the United States of America.

Section 3.—The provision of this ordinance shall not be deemed to apply to the payment of the principal or interest of the indebtedness of Thomas Holman to the city of Salem, for the purchase of the property of the city of Salem, sold to said Holman at the southeast corner of State and Liberty streets.

NEW CORPORATIONS.—The First Presbyterian church, of Upper Astoria, today filed articles, as did also the Oregon Fruit Land Co., of Portland, with a capital of $20,000.

W. S. McFadden, Esq., went to Salem to day to visit his father who is quite sick at the residence of the latter's daughter, Mrs. McElroy. The elderly gentleman had recently returned from a trip to his old home in Pennsylvania and the World's fair where he had been since the last of May. On his return to Oregon he appeared in the best of health, but has since taken sick.
Mr. McFadden has many friends who will hope to hear of his speedy recovery.—Corvallis News.

What Do You Take

Medicine for? Because you are sick and want to get well, or because you wish to prevent illness. Then remember that Hood's Sarsaparilla cures all diseases caused by impure blood and debility of the system. It is not what its proprietors say but what Hood's Sarsaparilla does, that tells the story of its merit. Be sure to get Hood's and only Hood's.

Purely vegetable—Hood's Pills—25

Hon. Napoleon Davis, now a resident of Portland, was a Salem visitor today.

The Portland Welcome says: There will be considerable surprise in society circles around town when the announcement is read the first time that Mrs.
Walker, widow of the late W. H.
Walker, in life one of the firm of Staver & Walker, was married in Vancouver, Wash., on Thursday of this week, to a youth known to his associates as Jack Squires. Squires is about 20 years of age—about the age of Mrs. Walker's oldest son—and Mrs. Walker is somewhere near 35 or 38. Because of the young man's youth, it is reported, it was not possible to procure a marriage license in this county, hence the lovers repaired to our sister town where the ceremony was performed.

The Cause of Children.

"If you are not sure of a thing yourself don't teach it."
"Nature is of service to man only as he sees through and beyond her."
"Truly the child can lead us to a higher life and a realization of our spiritual possibilities."
"The child of the humblest intelligence and the fully awakened genius are alike benefited by the system that develops character."
"The world today is moved onward by the compelling sound of the 'cry of the children' for love and light and life."
"Who is the more helpful companion,—the one who overshadows his friend with his superabundant personality, or the one who draws out the better self of his friend at every turn?"
—September Kindergarten.

Imitators and Impostors.

The unequalled success of Alcock's Porous Plasters as an external remedy has induced unscrupulous parties to offer imitations, which they endeavor to sell on the reputation of Alcock's.
It is an absurdity to speak of them in the same category as the genuine porous plaster. Their pretensions are unfounded, their boasted merit unsupported by facts, their alleged superiority to or equality with Alcock's a false pretense.

The ablest medical practitioners and chemists and thousands of grateful patients unite in declaring Alcock's Porous Plasters the best external remedy ever produced.

Beware of imitations, and do not be deceived by misrepresentation. Ask for Alcock's, and let no solicitation or explanation induce you to accept a substitute.

A New Use For Towels.

It appears from the latest consular report from Swatow, in southern China, that among cotton goods the import of towels alone has shown any improvement. But the consul explains, this does not imply any increased attention to personal cleanliness on the part of the inhabitants of the district, for the towels are used for clothing. The breadth of the ordinary towel being that from shoulder to shoulder, two sewn together will make a coat. Sleeves are dispensed with, and, except for the armholes, there is none of that waste of material which is especially repugnant to the Chinamen, and which the size of his native piece goods and the fashion of his clothes conspire to avoid.

British manufacturers have been warned by their agents and others of this frugal tendency of the Chinese mind, but the loom designed to turn out cloth of the narrow Chinese breadth requires as much attention as one giving cloth twice as wide. This leads the consul to suggest that the cloth might be woven so as to be divisible down the center, so that two pieces of the Chinese breadth could be woven at the same loom. So far the remonstrances of importers have availed chiefly to affect the length of the piece. If a piece 40 yards long will make exactly 12 Chinese garments, one a few inches less will only produce 11 similar garments, leaving a useless remnant. Thus importers who know their customers have urged that the piece, though it cannot be woven to a given inch, should always exceed the expected length and never fall short of it.—London Times.

A Misunderstanding.

For the first year or two after arrival in China the missionary makes enough mistakes to fill a comic almanac if only a record of them were kept. Fortunately for his own comfort, he rarely realizes what wonderful mistakes he makes, as the Chinese surpasses the Frenchman in politeness in this respect and will receive an astounding statement with perfect gravity and even repeat the mistake in his own answer that the foreigner may be kept in a good humor. Occasionally, though, the joke is too good to keep, and we all get the benefit of it.

One single gentleman, keeping house for himself, called his cook to him and said, as he thought, "I wish to settle the accounts." He should have said, "I wish to set da yong," but he said instead, "I wish to da yong." The cook stood still, making no answer. The missionary, thinking his servant very stupid, repeated with great emphasis, "I wish to da yong." Still the cook hesitated, putting his hands before him in a deprecatory manner, as if to ward off approaching calamity. The missionary by this time was sure something was wrong, that his cook was a cheat and rogue and was afraid to settle up his marketing expenses, so he thundered again the same command, "I want to da yong," whereupon the cook stammered, "Da yong (fight) fight with whom?
Fight with me! What have I done?"
—New York Independent.

An Ingenious Printer.

It requires a great deal of ingenuity to become a successful printer. Boys with printing presses and ambitions to develop into great printers should remember this and exercise their inventive qualities at every opportunity.

A story is told of a Prague printer who got himself out of a very disagreeable dilemma by the use of his ingenious mind. He was once called upon to print a report of the board of trade of his native city in the two languages of the country, German and Czech, and the representatives of either nationality strenuously desired that their tongue should occupy the first of the parallel columns on each page. The wary printer got out of his dilemma by turning one column upside down throughout the book and arranging the titles accordingly, so that each language had a front column on every page.—Harper's Young People.

Ormonde has arrived safely at his California home and gained weight on the trip. He has cost his owner $50,000 in traveling expenses.
It is not generally known that Direc-tum, 2-97, is owned by John Green, an old Irishman of Dublin, Cal., who made a fortune in the mines.
